of the three Jantikhatedars of the said number reserving Rs 173-5-4 for payment to the 3rd Jantidar Narnappa. Subsequently the first two Jantidars took objection to the payment of Rs 173-5-4 to Narnappa stating that the latter was not entitled to it. Hence in accordance with the provisions contained in Section 31 Clause 2 of the Land Acquisition Regulation VII of 1894, the matter was referred to the District Judge of Mysore for adjudication of the compensation amount.

2—. As the District Judge wanted the amount to be deposited in Court, an advance of Rs 173-5-4 was drawn from the District Treasury and remitted to him subject to adjustment. But the Comptroller in his Docket No. 266/121 dated 13th ultimo states that it is necessary to
